“STAND DOWN” is a military term, which refers to fresh troops taking care of exhausted combat troops by removing them from the battlefield to an environment that is safe and secure. The soldiers are given medical attention, food, fresh clothing and the chance to get cleaned up, rest and recuperate.

Similarly, on August 20th, the Pittsburgh community will come together to host Stand Down 2011, an intensive service fair for homeless veterans and their families, offering them a daylong respite from the streets and a real opportunity to put their lives back together.
